Time, 1:12, 23%, 35%, 48%, 1:03%.
Winner—B. c. by St. Saviour—Orlie.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gay Boy, and Jack Demund practically had the race between them after going the first furlong. Both are speedy, game colts, but, with jockeys reversed, Jack Demund would have won. He is big and heavy headed and his rider was unable to do him justice at the finish. His preliminary, however, was far from good. G. Whittier, on the rail, saved around throughout and was admirably handled. Peninsula closed a big gap after he had got away poorly and is steadily improving. April Shower's chances were destroyed by being carried wide by Nugget, who tried to bolt all around the turn. Halberdier was running well throughout.
Scratched—25426 Big Nine, 105; 25581 Caithness, 103.
Overweights—Nugget, 2 pounds.
Gay Boy, show, 1 to 2. Jack Demund, show, 1 to 3. G. Whittier, show, 3 to 1.

25683 SECOND RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $800 added. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 2:45, 48%, 1:14, 1:40, 1:46%.
Winner—B. c. by Knight of Ellerslie—Lizzie Pickwick.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. All Green set his own pace and was under restraint to the last eighth, then outgamed Gold Heels and Sadie S. in a driving finish. Gold Heels, under a strong pull for the first seven furlongs, was pocketed on the turn and carried wide, but finished strongly and ran a remarkable race. He looked big and high in flesh and is undoubtedly a better horse than he has yet shown. Sadie S., for a filly, put up a fine effort, but she cannot beat colts of the caliber of Gold Heels and All Green. Lancerman was poorly handled, but was outclassed. Terminus displayed a fine burst of speed and can probably do better.
Scratched—(19308) Vitellius, 108.
All Green, show, 1 to 3. Gold Heels, show, 4 to 5. Sadie S., show, 1 to 3.

25684 THIRD RACE—About 3-4 Mile. (160 feet short.) $700 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. by Galore—Conjunctrix.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Contend broke running, was lucky and perfectly handled. He is steadily improving. Maltster, last at the start, ran into pockets on the turn and badly messed about, closed like a flash and was easily best. Spry, off badly and covering much unnecessary ground, was running great guns in the stretch. Nanine ran a very fair race. Mayor Gilroy quit badly in the last quarter.
Scratched—25546 Gertrude Elliott, 95; 25567 Ante Up, 95; 25576 Edna J., 93; (23847) Kid, 92; 255512 Phoenician, 89.

Time, 2:35, 49, 1:14, 1:27, 1:40, 1:53%.
Winner—B. g. by Stuyvesant—Garnet.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 42 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Carbuncle was a good horse today but luckily placed throughout. Kamara suffered from costly interference on both turns and her race was phenomenally good under the circumstances. Sidney Lucas received first-class handling, saved ground on the turns and finished strongly. He was lucky though to be third. Decanter was best, broke flatfooted and was rushed too fast in the middle three-quarters, which he was timed separately in 1:13. Zeus, Gulden and Brigadier all displayed brilliant speed for seven furlongs and the last two were eased up in the stretch. Gulden was probably short. Latson was nearly left.
Overweights—Zeus, 5 pounds; Latson, 3.
Carbuncle, show, 2 to 1. Kamara, show, 1 to 3. Sidney Lucas, show, 8 to 5. Decanter, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Watercress—Margerique.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Nasturtium ran a fine race with all ease, is a genuine crackjack and may be a second edition of Hamburg, as he looks and runs like him. This is probably the best two-year-old thus far shown. Gold Seeker put up a splendid effort to beat the winner and it made him tire at the end. Smart Set, badly messed about, finished strongly and was probably second best. Playlike ran surprisingly well. Rameses ran a poor race for a colt of his reputation. The Dancer showed a brilliant burst of speed and may be above the average. The Dancer showed a brilliant burst of speed and may be above the average.
Scratched—(25682) Gay Boy, 112; 25682 Nugget, 112; 25058 Major Daingerfield, 112; 25578 Shandonfield, 112; 25381 Sunderlands, 109.
Nasturtium, show, 3 to 5. Gold Seeker, show, evens. Smart Set, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by St. Charles—White Squall.
Went to post at 5:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. At the weights Scurry was much the best and ran away from his field without trouble. Bombshell finished strongly and is becoming very good. Gertrude Elliott ran right up to her best form. Cherished ran in greatly improved form. The Amazon tired from following the winner's terrific pace. Young Dixon was speedy to the stretch. All Saints got off badly and had no chance with her jockey.
Scratched—(25021) Alard, 99.
Overweights—Cherished, 1 pound; Young Dixon, 2.

CLOSE FINISHES AT HAWTHORNE.

There was a big crowd out at Hawthorne yesterday and betting was heavier than the day before. The day was clear and slightly warm with a heavy wind blowing the entire afternoon.

Orimar put up a good race in the fourth but would have been beaten by Favonius in another stride. Woods was able to do justice to the latter and he showed to his 'Frisco form. He ran a dull race at his first local start last week, but he is heavy-headed and little Ranch was too weak to get much out of him.

Jimenez came near losing the fifth race by a weak ride. He is steadily improving and should soon be running to his last year's best form. Aladdin, well backed at long odds by a number of the talent, took the first race rather handily. Winkfield put up a shabby finish on The Esmond in the third race and did not appear to persevere to any extent when he had a chance to close on Mabel Winn in the last sixteenth. The latter won by a head on the post.

Senator O'Brien finally landed a race with Lee King, on whom Gilmore rode a clever finish, just getting up in the last stride.

Jockey Howell was thrown and stepped on by Adelante when the barrier went up in the fifth race. He was not seriously injured.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

When Spencer was taking Voter to the Keene stable at Sheepshead track on Sunday, the horse bolted as he entered the gates and zig-zagged between the sheds at breakneck speed. Spencer threw himself from the saddle and Voter vanished up the Futurity chute. Later he was found hitched to a post in the village, quiet as a lamb and unhurt.

Silver Coin and Parole d'Or have fallen under judicial disfavor at St. Louis and have been denied the privilege of running at the Fair Grounds.

Winner—B. g. by Powhattan—Flirtation.

Went to post at 5:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Auges had nothing to beat when Quicksilver fell at the seventeenth jump, but was lucky at that, as he took a cropper himself at the twenty-second but was far enough in front for Ray to remount and get home first. Basle did his best. The going was too heavy for Harry Corby, who tired badly. Jack Carey fell at the eighteenth jump.

Went to post at 3:54. At post 7 minutes. Start poor. Won in a hard drive of five. Battus was the best. He stood a long drive and answered the whip gamely. Dan Paxton who seems to be a good sprinter, was off badly and came with a rush at the finish and almost won. Dale will not ride in a bunch and came on the outside. Sard dogged it when pressed. Alea ran a good race. Fridolin showed improvement. Tenny Belle, off badly, was not persevered with. Sinfi is overrated.

Eda Riley was kept out of it too long and came fast at the end. William Boyer ran his race. Celtic Bard has gone back. He was lame and is said to be as good as broken down. C. P. Winner—B. c. by St. George—Merry Wise.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second the same. Aladdin off with a running start, showed a fine turn of speed and had no trouble in winning. Stuyve ran with the winner until well into the stretch. He tired in the final sixteenth. The weight appeared to stop Hans Wagner, who tired perceptibly in the last eighth. There was a strong breeze blowing down the stretch and this may have affected him. Hargis had no chance from where he got off and was pocketed on the inside rail down the last quarter. His race should be thrown out. Legal Maxim, off well, had no excuses and ran a bad race. Little Scout had no chance from where he got off.

Scratched—Long, 102; 25566 Tom Wallace, 97.

Overweights—Lord Quex, 14 pounds; Emmet Orr, 1; Parnassus, 2.

Winner—B. m. by Siddartha—Lady Nell.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won in a fierce drive; second easily. Winkfield laid away cleverly with the winner until the last eighth, where he brought her through with a rush. She had all she could do to beat El Caney's forcible bid at the end. The latter tired at the eighth post, but Coburn pulled him together in the closing strides and he showed more gameness than he was supposed to possess. Moroni was well ridden, but could not make good and was a thoroughly exhausted horse at the wire. Prairie Dog stopped at the last eighth post. Hermencia ran fairly well for six furlongs.

Corrected weights—Colbert, 105.

Winner—B. f. by Conrad—Alvareta.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 12 minutes. Start poor. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Mabel Winn finished strongly, but looked like she should have been beaten had Winkfield persevered on The Esmond in the closing strides. It was the poorest ride Winkfield has shown at the meeting and was in glaring contrast to some of his energetic rides on the post. Johanna D. had her usual lot of speed, but faded away at the eighth post. Kentucky Muddle was as good as left and can do better.

Winner—Ch. h. by Sir Dixon—Prairie Queen.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won all out and driving to the limit; second easily. Orimar had the most speed but just lasted long enough to win. Favonius, well ridden by Woods, came with a well-timed rush at the wire and would have won in another jump. Livadia ran a good race but was slightly outclassed. Hard Knot, well up to the last sixteenth, stopped in the closing strides. Bangle ran well for five furlongs. The race should do him a great deal of good.

Winner—B. c. by The Commoner—Birdie T.

Went to post at 5:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second easily. Jiminez had the most early speed, but was failing at the end and would have been beaten in a few more strides. V. Jones, who rode him, could not do him justice. Trinity Bell saved ground by hugging the inside rail, but was pretty tired at the finish. Fancy Wood stopped in the last sixteenth. Whitfield had plenty of speed for six furlongs. Searcher is nowhere near a race and can do a great deal better. Adelante stumbled at the start, throwing Jockey Howell and striking him on the head with his hoof.

Zaza was stopping palpably in the closing strides. Harney looked dangerous for a moment at the last eighth post, but hung from there to the wire. Woods rode Nansen hard the entire route. Educate was rank for five furlongs and then fell away gradually. Give All, beaten off down the backstretch, came tearing in the last quarter. Myrtle Gebauer ran prominently for half a mile and then died away. Lee King, show, 3 to 5. Zaza, show, 8 to 5. Harney, show, evens. Nansen, show, evens.
